TEACHER: The witch has a cat and a very tall hat, long red hair with a yellow bow and a long broom. The witch and the cat sit on the broom and they fly through the wind (sound of wind). But the wind blows so wildly that blows off the hat.

WITCH: Oh no! My hat! Where is it? Let's go down.

TEACHER: The cat and the witch go down, and they search for the hat.

WITCH: Where is my hat? I can't find it!

TEACHER: Then, suddenly, a small dog appears with the hat in his mouth and the dog gives the hat to the witch.

DOG: Hello witch! I am a dog and I'm very good. Is there room on the broom for a dog like me?

WITCH: Yes! Let's go!

TEACHER: The witch, the cat and the dog sit on the broom, and they fly away. Then, the wind blows so wildly that blows off the bow.

WITCH: Oh no! My bow! Where is it? Let's go down.

TEACHER: The dog, the cat and the witch go down, and they search for the bow.

WITCH: Where is my bow? I can't find it!

TEACHER: Then, suddenly, a pink bird appears with the bow in his beak and the bird gives the bow to the witch.

BIRD: Hello witch! I am a bird and I'm pink. Is there room on the broom for a bird like me?

WITCH: Yes! Let's go!

TEACHER: The witch, the cat, the dog and the bird sit on the broom, and they fly away. Then, the wind blows so wildly that blows off the wand.

WITCH: Oh no! My wand! Where is it? Let's go down.

TEACHER: The bird, the dog, the cat and the witch go down, and they search for the wand.

WITCH: Where is my wand? I can't find it!

TEACHER: Then, suddenly, a green frog appears with the wand in his hands and the frog gives the wand to the witch.

FROG: Hello witch! I am a frog and I'm green. Is there room on the broom for a frog like me?

WITCH: Yes! Let's go!

TEACHER: The witch, the cat, the dog, the bird and the frog sit on the broom, and they fly away. Then, the wind blows so wildly that the broom breaks in two parts.

WITCH: Oh no! Careful!

TEACHER: The cat, the dog, the bird and the frog fall down to the ground. The witch stays in her part of the broom and then, the witch hears a noise... (roar)

DRAGON: Hello witch! I am a dragon and I'm hungry. I want to eat witch and chips.

WITCH: NOOOOOOO! I'm going to escape!

TEACHER: Then, the witch flies in her broom fast and the dragon flies after her. The witch flies to the ground trying to escape.

WITCH: HELP! I need help!

DRAGON: You can't escape witch! I'm hungry, and I want to eat witch.

TEACHER: But suddenly, a blue monster with 5 heads and 11 eyes, appears in front of the dragon and the witch.

DRAGON: Go away Dragon.... That is my witch!

DRAGON: OK, I'm sorry! I have to go! Bye!

TEACHER: And the dragon disappears flying. Then, the witch looks at the brown monster... But there's no monster!! They are her friends: the cat, the dog, the bird and the frog.

WITCH: Oh! Thank you my friends. Thank you!
I have an idea... Find something and put it in the cauldron.

TEACHER: The frog finds a flower; the cat finds a cone; the bird finds a branch and the dog finds a bone. Then, they put them in the cauldron.

WITCH: Iggety, ziggety, zaggety... ZOOM! (holding the wand)

TEACHER: And an incredible broom appears. They sit on the new broom, and fly away together.
